6 PROCESSING AND PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

DRA will process personal information lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to data subjects and only for a specified, explicit and legitimate purpose. Further information on how DRA processes the personal information of various categories of people for various purposes are set out in DRA's Privacy Policy available on its website at <https://www.draglobal.com>.

7 AUTOMATIC DISCLOSURE

The following records are available automatically and do not require a formal access request in terms of the Act:

- Brochures
- Trade circulars
- Pamphlets

In accordance with section 26 of the Companies Act 71 of 2008, application for access to the following records must be made to DRA on Form CoR24 and do not require a formal access request in terms of the Act:

- Register of directors
- Securities register

These records are available for inspection at the DRA's offices during normal business hours.

8 ACCESS REQUEST PROCEDURE

8.1 Access Request Form

A requester must complete and submit an Access Request Form, included as Annexure A, to request access to a record held by DRA.

The successful completion and submission of an Access Request Form does not automatically allow the requester access to the requested record. Access to records may be subject to certain limitations, as further detailed in section 8.6.

In order to facilitate a timely response to requests for access, all requesters should take note of the following when completing the Access Request Form:

- The Access Request Form must be completed in full.
- Sufficient information must be provided to enable the identification of the record(s) requested.
- The requestor must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- Proof of identity must be provided to authenticate the identity of the requester.

- If a question does not apply, state “N/A” in response to that question.
- If there is nothing to disclose in reply to a particular question, state “nil” in response to that question.
- If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.

8.2 Submission of Access Request Form

The completed Access Request Form together with proof of identity must be submitted by e-mail and must be addressed to the Information Officer indicated above.

This fee is not applicable to requesters requesting access to records that contain their personal information. Requesters are required to consult the DRA Privacy Policy available here: www.DRAGlobal.com for to request access to personal information.

8.3 Payment of Fees

An initial request fee of R140.00 (including VAT) is payable on submission.

The Information Officer must by notice require the requester to pay the prescribed request fee (if any) before further processing the request. Proof of payment must be supplied.

The access fee must be paid prior to access being given to the requested record.

If the request for access is granted, an access fee may be required for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the record(s) and will be calculated based on the fees prescribed in the Act.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access which is refused, then the deposit will be refunded to the requester.

8.4 Notification

The Information Officer will within 30 days of receipt of a request decide whether to grant or refuse the request and give notice with reasons to that effect to the requester. The 30-day period within which the Information Officer has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days, if the request is for a large volume of information and the information cannot be reasonably obtained within the original 30-day period. The Information Officer will notify the requester in writing should an extension be necessary.

If the Information Officer cannot find the record the requester asked for or it does not exist, the Information Officer will notify the requester by affidavit stating it is not possible to give access to that record.

8.5 Ground for Refusal of Access to Records

The main grounds for refusal of a request for information are:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person.
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party which may include:
 - trade secrets of that party
 - financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that party
 - information disclosed in confidence by a third party to DRA if the disclosure could put that third party to a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of a third party if it is protected in terms of any agreement.
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property.
- Mandatory protection of research information of a third party or DRA.
- Mandatory protection of records which could be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings.

- The commercial information of DRA which may include:
 - trade secrets of DRA
 - financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of DRA.

9 REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO REQUESTERS

If the Information Officer refuses the request for access, the requester may:

- apply to a court with competent jurisdiction; or
- complain to the Information Regulator (using the Information Regulator's contact details provided below), for the necessary relief within 180 calendar days of the Information Officer notifying the requester of their decision.

10 GUIDANCE BY INFORMATION REGULATOR

A guide on how requesters can exercise their rights under the Act has been issued by the Information Regulator. The guide is available in each official language of South Africa and published on the Information Regulator's website at <https://infoeregulator.org.za/paia-guidelines/>.
